

It's that time again.....FREE DEAF EVENT!

~Come celebrate Deaf Awareness Week (a little late)

at Camp Yomechas in Middleboro MA.

Date: Saturday October 13th

Time: 12:00-4:00

Who: Deaf, hard of hearing, Deaf/blind, ASL students
(ASL students.....voices OFF please)

Address: 375 Wareham St. Middleboro MA

This is a potluck event! Please be sure to contribute to our yummy potluck buffet table. We will have full use of a kitchen so hot and cold food will gladly be accepted! Food ideas: pasta salads/dishes, chicken nuggets (cheap and kids love them) desserts, juice boxes, paper plates, napkins and cups, soda bottle water, meatballs, crocks of chili etc.....

~Please share this event info with your friends and family.....it's

So much to do at Camp Yomechas: boating, fishing, basketball, baseball, volleyball. If it rains....no worries!

Camp Yomechas has 2 big lodges.

We will set up lots of activities and games inside of the lodge: face painting, arts and crafts, bobbing for apples, games etc.....

thank you

A BIG THANK YOU TO READS COLLABORATIVE FOR COVERING THE COST OF THIS EVENT!

Please RSVP to: Marianne Molinari

manny66@msn.com You can find this and other Deaf event info on my website: mariannemolinariasl.com